The 2017 Nissan Versa Note Opens a New Window. proves you don't have to settle for dull styling and a barren interior just because you opt for a small, affordable and economical subcompact car. The entry-level Versa Note's quirky styling and versatile rear hatch give it both personality and functionality, while its interior is surprisingly roomy. It's so big that four 6-footers could legitimately take a road trip in this car without compromise. There's no other compact hatchback like it. If you're willing
